Does your company have employees in Canada?

Canada's anti-spam laws require anyone receiving Commercial Electronic Messages to expressly consent to receive them and be able to opt out afterward. Because many of ISRI's newsletters contain information about our conferences and events, they fall under this category. To receive ISRI's e-mailed publications, Canada-based employees must read and sign the following statement. They can opt out of receiving ISRI emails at any time by emailing membership@isri.org or by unsubscribing from the email itself.

I, _____, on behalf of myself and all the employees at _____ (company) hereby grant the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries, Inc., its Chapters and its affiliates (i.e., ISRI Services Corp., Recycling Research Foundation, and ISRI Resources) (collectively, "ISRI") my express consent to receive all their communications, updates, notices, and associated commercial and non-commercial materials including, but not limited to, educational programming, conventions, commodity roundtables and similar programs and members only money saving opportunities related to the scrap recycling industry in accordance with the anti-spam laws of Canada.

ISRI PAC has been vital towards our efforts to achieve Superfund reform, accelerated depreciation for equipment purchases, helping to establish and populate the Congressional Recycling Caucus, addressing federal metals theft legislation, and gaining access to Members of Congress.

Authorized Dealers Form

Domestic Associate

For some time, ISRI has been aware of a challenge faced by many of our Domestic Associate members. ISRI's regulations prohibited our vendor members from including their franchisees, licensed, and authorized dealers (hereafter, "Authorized Dealers") as part of the company's membership. The only way a location could qualify is if the location was wholly owned by the member company. Because many manufacturers of processing machinery, equipment, or supplies have long desired to have a way for their Authorized Dealers to play an active role in ISRI without requiring the dealer to pay full membership in the association, ISRI changed its policy to allow this provided the following:

As part of your Associate Membership, you may list your Authorized Dealers at a cost of $200 per dealer and applicable chapter fees. Please note: you only need to pay a chapter fee once. For example, if your company and that of your authorized dealer were both located in the Wisconsin Chapter, you would pay national fees for both ($700 for you; $200 for the authorized dealer), but Wisconsin Chapter fees only once, no matter how many authorized dealers you declare inside the chapter.

Please return a copy of this form along with your application.
