Does your company have employees in Canada?

Canada's anti-spam laws require anyone receiving Commercial Electronic Messages to expressly consent to receive them and be able to opt out afterward. Because many of ISRI's newsletters contain information about our conferences and events, they fall under this category. To receive ISRI's e-mailed publications, Canada-based employees must read and sign the following statement. They can opt out of receiving ISRI emails at any time by emailing membership@isri.org or by unsubscribing from the email itself.

I, _____, on behalf of myself and all the employees at _____ (company) hereby grant the Institute of Scrap Recycling Industries, Inc., its Chapters and its affiliates (i.e., ISRI Services Corp., Recycling Research Foundation, and ISRI Resources) (collectively, "ISRI") my express consent to receive all their communications, updates, notices, and associated commercial and non-commercial materials including, but not limited to, educational programming, conventions, commodity roundtables and similar programs and members only money saving opportunities related to the scrap recycling industry in accordance with the anti-spam laws of Canada.

ISRI PAC is the political action committee associated with ISRI and helps ISRI's government relations department represent our industry on Capitol Hill. ISRI PAC has been vital towards our efforts to achieve Superfund reform, accelerated depreciation for equipment purchases, helping to establish and populate the Congressional Recycling Caucus, addressing federal metals theft legislation, and gaining access to Members of Congress.

Note: Corporations can authorize only one trade association each year. Contributions are not tax deductible.

(Dues reflect fifteen (15) months of membership)

Dues Schedule For Processors, Merchants, Traders or Brokers

ISRI national dues for processors, brokers, merchants, and traders are calculated based on annual gross sales. Use that figure to find the appropriate dues category and dues amount in the list below. Then write your dues category and annual dues amount on the membership application sheet (page 3).

Annual Gross Sales	Dues Category	Annual Dues*
$0 M–$5 M	1	$2,834
$5 M–$10 M	2	$3,747
$10 M–$20 M	3	$5,269
$20 M–$35 M	4	$7,324
$35 M–$50 M	5	$8,370
$50 M–$65 M	6	$10,431
$65 M–$80 M	7	$12,504
$80 M–$100 M	8	$16,801
$100 M–$250 M	9	$20,139
$250 M–$500 M	10	$23,489
$500 M–$750 M	11	$27,942
$750 M–$1 B	12	$33,490
$1 B–$1.5 B	13	$39,060
$1.5 B and above	14	$44,647 plus $106 each addl. $5 M in gross sales

Dues Schedule For Consumers

Dues for consumers of scrap materials are based on annual gross sales. Annual gross sales are calculated by using the ratio of scrap purchases to total raw material purchases multiplied by the total gross sales. To determine your annual dues, find the appropriate dues category below that matches your company's annual gross sales. Then write your dues category and annual dues amount on the membership application (page 3).

Annual Gross Sales	Dues Category	Annual Dues*
$0–$35 M	C1	$3,448
$35 M–$100 M	C2	$5,146
$100 M–$250 M	C3	$8,063
$250 M and above	C4	$10,291

*Payment of membership dues is deductible for most members of a trade association under Section 162 of the Internal Revenue Code as an ordinary and necessary trade or business expense and is not deductible as charitable contributions for federal income tax purposes. Due to the Budget Reconciliation Act of 1993, a percentage of ISRI's national membership dues will no longer be deductible as a business expense. This nondeductible percentage reflects the portion of ISRI's expenses used for "lobbying" as defined by the act. The nondeductible percentage of your 2019 national dues is 10%.
