

HAZARD CONTROL

This illustration may be a little over the top, but how far are you willing to go to control hazards in your operation?

What hazards do you have that need to be reduced or eliminated?

Take them in order, worst to best. Work on them a little every day.

Constant improvement is better than delayed perfection.

--Mark Twain