

SAFETYPOINT

Scrapyard Safety Training

PROTECT THAT PIT!

Here's a solution for preventing falls into oil change pits from our friends at Louisiana Scrap, Port Allen, Louisiana. The carabineers at the end detach and the entire netting pushes easily to the center of the pit for full access to the underside of the equipment. In the photo below, notice the solid platform built across the center of the pit to allow forklifts to pull onto the pit sideways, allowing the mechanic to service a forklift from below.

Institute of Scrap Recycling
Industries, Inc.

Voice of the Recycling Industry

Send comments or questions to: isrisafety@isri.org